United Nations E/CN.15/2014/L.14

Economic and Social Council

Distr.: Limited
15 April 2014

Original: English

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice
Twenty-third session
Vienna, 12-16 May 2014
Item 8 of the provisional agenda*
Follow-up to the Twelfth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice and preparations for the Thirteenth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Mexico: draft resolution

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the approval of the following draft resolution for adoption by the General Assembly:

Contribution of the Thirteenth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice to the promotion of the rule of law and the formulation of the post-2015 development agenda

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 61/16 of 20 November 2006, in which it reaffirmed the role that the Charter of the United Nations and the General Assembly had vested in the Economic and Social Council and recognized the need for a more effective Council as a principal body for coordination, policy review, policy dialogue and recommendations on issues of economic and social development, as well as for implementation of the international development goals agreed at the major United Nations conferences and summits, including the Millennium Development Goals,

Reaffirming that, through its resolution 68/1 of 20 September 2013, the Assembly decided that the Economic and Social Council should base its annual programme of work on a main theme that would, inter alia, be decided by the Council based on inputs from its subsidiary bodies, as well as Member States, and that an integration segment should be held annually, the main functions of which would be to consolidate all the inputs of Member States, the subsidiary bodies of the

* E/CN.15/2014/1.

V.14-02463 (E)

Please recycle

Council, the United Nations system and other relevant stakeholders and to promote the balanced integration of the three dimensions of sustainable development,

Recognizing the preparations for the Thirteenth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, as set out in resolution 67/184 of 20 December 2012, including the decision that the main theme of the Congress would be "Integrating crime prevention and criminal justice into the wider United Nations agenda to address social and economic challenges and to promote the rule of law at the national and international levels, and public participation",

Welcoming the report of the Secretary-General[1] submitted pursuant to General Assembly resolution 67/184, in which the Secretary-General recalled that the Thirteenth Congress marks the sixtieth anniversary of United Nations congresses on crime prevention and criminal justice, and that in view of the fact that it is being convened on the threshold of the establishment and beginning of the implementation of the post-2015 development agenda, the Thirteenth Congress provides a unique opportunity to place at centre stage the role of the criminal justice system in the promotion of the rule of law and in support of sustainable development,

1. Requests the secretariat of the Thirteenth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice to prepare a report on the contribution that the Congress could make to the broader United Nations-wide efforts for the protection and promotion of the rule of law and the formulation of the post-2015 development agenda;

2. Invites Member States, international and regional organizations and all relevant stakeholders, including intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, to make their own contributions to the twenty-fourth session of the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice on the question of how best to integrate crime prevention and criminal justice into the post-2015 development agenda.

[1] E/CN.15/2013/10.